Dear Sirs

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited (Appellants) and others

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited and others (Meridian Limited)
(Appellants)

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited and others (Pretty Polly Limited)(Appellant)

I enclose the order made by the Court granting permission to appeal on terms. As the parties will see, the intention of the Court is that, if the appeal succeeds, the respondent shall be at no greater personal liability for costs than she would have been had she lost in the Court of Appeal.

Yours faithfully

Louise di Mambro

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited (Appellants) and others

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited and others (Meridian Limited) (Appellants)

Baker (Respondent) v
Quantum Clothing Group Limited and others (Pretty Polly Limited)(Appellant)

AFTER CONSIDERATION of the appellants' applications for permission to appeal the orders made by the Court of Appeal on 22 May 2009 and 16 June 2009, of the notice of objection filed by the respondent and of the submissions on terms filed by all the parties

THE COURT ORDERED that

Permission to appeal be GRANTED on the following terms

(1) The appellants to be jointly and severally liable to pay the respondent's costs of the appeal to the Supreme Court in any event, limited to representation by solicitors, one leading and two junior counsel, such costs to be assessed if not agreed at the standard rate without uplift or ATE insurance premium

(2) The appellants shall not invoke the indemnity principle in relation to their liability under paragraph (1) above

(3) The appellants shall not be entitled to set-off their liability under paragraph (1) above against any costs payable by the respondent in respect of the proceedings in the courts below

(4) Any further issues as to costs to be dealt with after judgment has been given.
